

First Time on the Market Since The Early 60's.
Homer Delawie designed home :: the Bardrick Residence.

Local jewelry and clothing designer, photographer, world traveler and Argentine tango enthusiast, Barbara Bardrick was a La Jolla resident since the early 1960's.

She had a keen eye for design and architecture, and enjoyed her home in La Jolla Shores for over 4 decades.

Located just a block to La Jolla Shores beach, this is a unique real estate opportunity.

The residence is now offered for sale. The home will not be in the MLS until spring 2012, but is currently listed for sale at an offer price of $1,585,000.

For more information on this property, please contact Michelle Serafini, Coldwell Banker Previews International at 858.829.6210 or michelle@locationlocationcoastal.com

Home Stats ::
5400 Sq. Ft. Lot
1897 Sq. Ft. House
Single Level :: Contemporary
2 Bedrooms :: 2 Baths